and had a talk with the President. He is to be conveyed to Venezuela in an American war ship.

Only two days more! To-day and Monday are the only days remaining for preparation. Much has been done, yet much remains undone. There are at least Fifty Thousand anti-Lecompton voters in our State who have not yet resolved to be at the polls next Tuesday. Republican reader! you can arouse at least one of these from his apathy if you will. Think which among all your acquaintances is yet heedless or apathetic, and resolve to use your best exertions, and if necessary incite those of others, to awake him to the performance of his duty!

REMEMBER, Republicans' that those who tell you "the Kansas question is settled," made the same assertion, with even greater positiveness, on the eve of your last Election.

REMEMBER the dispatch from James Buchanan to Dan Sickles denying most explicitly that Gor. Walker was to be removed.

REMEMBER that Gov, Walker was removed-in substance if not in form-within four weeks afterward.

RIMEMBER that the original offense which thus brought his head to the block was simply the rejection of the Three or Four Thousand Votes impudently east by two or three hundred invading Missourians at a few polls along the border where there were but a handfull of Free-State men to detect or resist them.

REMEMBER that the Lecompton Constitution, and the Border Ruffian rule which preceded and begot it were based upon just that kind of votes. REMEMBER Buchanan's desperate, frantic efforts to force that Slave Constitution through Congress and thus fasten it upon a protesting, struggling People.

REMEMBER Buchanan's self-justifying assertion in his Lecompton Special Message that Kansas was just as much a Slave State as Georgia or Alabama. REMEMBER that Amasa J. Parker, John J. Taylor, Gouverneur Kemble, John A. Searing, George Taylor, Daniel E. Sickles, John Kelly, William B. Maclay, Elijah Ward, John Cochrane, Erastus Corning, Israel T. Hatch, Jacob R. Wortendyke and John Huyler-new candidates for most important trusts in this State and New-Jersey-supported from first to last, without stint or scruple, that most flagrant conspiracy to make Kansas a Slave State against her will.

REMEMBER that Horace F. Clark, John B. Haskin and Garnett B. Adrain-like John Hickman of Pa, and John G. Davis of Indiana-were promptly denounced and read out of the party for resisting the President's will and insisting that Kansas should be allowed a fair vote on her pretended Constitution.

REMEMBER that no single Member of Congress who resisted the Lecompton Iniquity has been renominated by what claims to be the regular Democratic party. REMEMBER that you have thus far been obliged to witness this wrong and outrage without a chance to express your opinion of it so as to compel others to respect it. REMEMBER that for one day in the year you me above President, Congress, and all who "drest in a little brief authority, Play such fantastic tricks before high Heaven As make e'en angels weep."

REMEMBER that your day is NEXT TUESDAY.

That the people may know who are to have charge of the ballot-boxes on Tuesday next, we print to-day a list of the Inspectors of Election in this city and Brooklyn, as returned last November to the County Clerks. It will be observed that there are many deficiencies; in some places, two names; in others, only one; and occasionally none at all. Look out for these places! The Common Council will fill the vacancies and put Clancy's men into every possible place. Beside the apparent vacancies, there will be many more from absence or laziness, and these also will be filled under the eye of Mr. Claney. Every American or Republican regularly chosen last year should be sure to be on hand before sunrise; if he is not, the Buchanan ites will rule him out, and put a Lecomptonite in his place. Look, for instance, at the great Pro-Slavery stronghold, the Sixth Ward. In the IVth and VIth Districts, which gave 808 for Wood to 90 for Tiemann, two Irishmen only in each District are returned; they will put another of the same stripe in place of the opposition member who was duly chosen by law, but has failed to qualify, and then Clancy may have "s fair show," in the Sixth-Ward meaning of the term.

Let the friends of honest voting be early at the polls, and note how these vacancies are filled. Get the name, residence and business of every Inspector, so that he may be found hereafter if need be. Not a few of the Wood Inspectors, chosen last year, seem to be men of "straw," so far as we can learn from the Directory. Perhaps, too, the voters may see in these maneuvers satisfactory reasons for supporting a revision of the Constitution, which would put an end to double-voting, cheating Inspectors and false counting. Watch closely, and remember that the man who would perpetrate a fraud in the ballot, is a scoundrel of deeper dye than the Missouri Border Ruffian, who stuffed the boxes in Kansas with ballots, borne at the muzzle of his revolver. He, at least, was a villain without concealment; here the knaves will do as great a crime in the dark. An honest poll insures the election of the entire Opposition County Tickets, and four or five, and perhaps six. anti-Lecompton Members of Congress in these two Counties. Beware!

Citizens of the XVth Ward! a word with you! You are always grumbling that the candidates for office are mere political adventurers, for whom you ought not to be asked to vote. You have now before you as candidates for Governor and Member of Congress two of yourselves-both honored and successful merchants-EDWIN D. MORGAN and ROBERT H. McCURDY You know them to be capable and worthy-you know them to be faithful and deserving-you know that they ought to be elected. Now just bring out your Fifteen Hundred majority for Mr. McCurdy, or your fellowcitizens will not be encouraged to put up such men s candidates hereafter.

Anti-Lecompton electors of Kings County! fail not to vote next Tuesday, and to vote the entire Union Ticket! It is composed of good men, and to scratch the name of one is to endanger the succees of all. None can be elected without the united and cordial support of the entire Opposition.

We have before us an anonymous circular addressed " to the Republican voters of the 2d Congressional District," urging Republicans not to support those candidates on the Union Ticket who were proposed by the Americans. We need not say that this is a trick of the common enemy, and There will be capital speakers on Land. Turn out and Geo. Pacz was lionized at Washington yesterday, a very dirty one. The nomination on which it show your strength.

harps of Backhouse for Congress, as a "Straight "American," is a matter of no consequence. Not one American in twenty gives it any sort of countenance. It is just as in Philadelphia, where Straight American" candidates were run at the late election, but received only half a pocketful of votes. It will be the same here, in Brooklyn and everywhere. Just let every Republican vote the entire Union Ticket, and "Straight Americanism" will neither trouble us now nor hereafter. But if Republicans cut Americans, Americans will cut Republicans, and the old feud will be recpened with added titterness. Vote for every candidate most likely to heat the Lecomptonites and you will be right every time.

Mr. Gouverneur Kemble writes a letter to let the public know that, if elected to Congress, he will disregard the invidious conditions of future admission imposed on Kansas by the English bill. and vote to admit her on sight any how. This letter completely justifies Mr. Haskin, who is deneunced and prescribed as no Democrat because he refused to force Kansas into the Union under a Constitution known to be abhorrent to her People, and which she had already overwhelmingly rejected, as she has since most emphatically done.

If Mr. Kemble were sincere in his present dec larations, he ought to decline at once. Why is he a candidate? Because Mr. Haskin differed with the President as to the right course to be pursued toward Kansas. Nay: Mr. Kemble held a meeting to denounce Mr. Haskin when he had only voted to inquire into the validity of the Lecompton Constitution. And now Mr. Kemble proposes himself to take a course directly opposite to the President's published determination that the provisions of the English-Lecompton act must be obeyed and fulfilled to the letter! If Kemble may Rus act independently of and adversely to the President's will, why may not Haskin? Shall one steal a horsewith impunity, while the other is bung for merely looking over the hedge !

All over the Free States the politicians who scouted the application of Kansas for admission as a Free State under the Topeka Constitution are promising and pledging themselves to vote for her admission hereafter under any Constitution which may have been sanctioned by her people. "At the "carliest practicable moment" is their current phraseology, and we find it used in an electioneering letter just put forth by John Arnot, Buchanan candidate for Congress in the Chemung District. These be fair words-very fair, indeed, "When the devil was sick, the devil a monk would be." But when Kansas, ground under the heel of the Border Ruffians, ravaged and bleeding at every pore, petitioned Congress for admission in 1856, who heard John Arnot or any of his clan advocate for admission then? The Republicans urged it, the House passed it. Had the Senate and President asserted, precious lives would have been saved and shameful devastations prevented. But the South forbade it, and Sham-Democracy bowed to the mandate and defeated it. Who will now trust the reprobate's death-bed professions?

We call for the last time upon the anti-Lecomp ton electors of the HIId Congress District (downtown) to meet this day and agree on the one candidate who is to beat Sickles next Tuesday. It must be done at once, for there is no time to be lost. If the more immediate friends of the rival candidates do not arrange the matter to-day, we shall, on Monday, after a careful survey of the ground, urge every anti-Lecompton voter in the District to support that anti-Lecompton candidate who, in our judgment, combines the most strength and stands the best chance of success. We hate to take this responsibility, and hoped to be spared the necessity; but if we must, we must.

If there be any honorable, upright Americans in the Vth Congress District who think the Republicans ought to have accepted Mr. Gilbert C. Desne as a Union candidate for Congress, we will thank them to inquire of those who know Mr. Drane well before acting on that judgment. We refer them to Mr. Joseph Hoxie, No. 6 Wall street, as one of the class just mentioned.

The Republicans of the IVth District-IVth. VIth, Xth and XIVth Wards-have a good chance to elect their Congressman if they really try. All is in confusion on the other side-let us improve the opportunity!

FORCIBLE ABDUCTION OF A JEWISH BOY AT BOLOGNA, ITALY.

From The Jewish Messenger (N. Y.).

Our exchanges are crowded with spirited editorials on the subject of the above horrible deed—an act which recalls to the mind of Israel the cruelties inwhich recalls to the mind of Israel the cruelties in-flicted on their ancestors in olden time. We have neither the time nor inclination to unravel the flimsy web of ingenuity which our releatless persecutors then wove to justify their heartless conduct. Thank heaven we live in the United States, where no Catholic would dare to kidnap or abduct any of our children. The bere attempt would raise such a hue and cry of indig-nation among our citizens, that we verily believe it would cause the toiling of the funeral beli to all such future proceedings. future proceedings.

In order that such of our readers as do not see the foreign journals may know something of the affair which has nearly convulsed the religious world of Europe, we will place on record a concise recital of facts, leaving them to draw their own conclusions, while we afford them the cheering promise that Eu-gland and France will redress the wrong so cruelly pertrated.

Marpato Mortara, an Israelite of Juggis, lives at marnato siotara, an Israelle of Jeggis, lives at Belegna, with his family, and there carries on an hon-orable business. On the evening of Jane 23, his house was invaded by the police, who, accompatied by a stranger, intimated to him as well as his wife, the order was invaded by the police, who, accompanied by a stranger, intimated io him as well as his wife, the order given by the inquisitor to possess themselves of one of his boys, an interesting had six years of age, named Edgar, under pretense that baptism had been administered to him, without indicating any circumstance either of time or place.

The miserable parents, struck as by lightning at the idea of seeing their darling boy carried off, excited the compassion of the agents of the police, who consented to delay the execution of the mandate in order to gain time to report to the authorities, guarding, in the mean time, the house of the child. The friends of the family could only see the inquisitor, who said he could not answer the order given, nor explain how or by whom baptism had been administered. The time spent in useless attempts only led to the mother, overwhelmed with sorrow, tearing herself from six young children, and dragging herself to Modena, where her parents reside, and where she was taken so seriously parents reside, and where she was taken so seriously ill from grief, that well-founded fears are entertained for her life. On the following evening, at 10 o'clock, the terrified

On the fellowing evening, at 10 o'clock, the terrified child, anatched up in the arms of the police, was tora from the besom of the father and thrown into a conveyance, which, surrounded by an armed force, drove off among a large crowd which had assembled, and which cursed such a monstrous deed, and such a reprehensible abuse of power.

Poor Mortara, who could not, in consequence of special conditions imposed upon the Pope's Jowish subjects, loudly proclaimed a parent's right, writhed like a worm, implering again and again the local inquisitor to restore him his child! The only reply he received was, "All depends upon Rome." Thus far the narrative.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE N. Y. TRIBUNE. From a Special Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Oct. 29, 1858. Another effort is making to remove Captain Meigs, who, with all his monopolizing spirit, is too rigid in scrutinizing the disbursements for jobbers, contractors, and Administration operators. With him out of way, a wide field for speculation would be opened.

The Senate Chamber will not be ready for occupany at the meeting of Congress, with the present and Campbell; in Onio, under the lead of Chan progress.

Information received indirectly from Paraguay gives a more serious aspect to the case than heretoore anticipated, and there is no present expectation of the expedition returning unmolested. This was the reason given for filling Com. Shubrick's place as President of the Lighthouse Board.

Joseph Miller of Ohio, one of the rejected Lecomptonites, has been here seeking consolation, but so far ineffectually.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company are organizing their operations for the coming session, to get an extension of the mail contracts about expiring. They will have a hard time, even with the manipulation of the stationary fogies here, who are enough to sink any line. Mr. Crosswell was here recently, feeling the way.

The Treasury Department now abandons any hope of improvement in the receipts till next Spring. Mr. Cobb will guard the estimates of revenue more carefully than last year, and probably consent conditionally to increased duties. But there has been no conference in the Cabinet on this subject, and hardly on any other.

Mr. Stevenson of Kentucky and other Southern Members proposed to take the stump for Douglas, but were advised to stay away. Jimmy Jones and Knox Walker of Illinois are now tramping through Egypt.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Oct. 29, 1858. The State Department, having reason to suppose that some irresponsible persons in England, and others there writing under assumed names, have induced parties in this country to forward remittances thither for recovery of estates to which they are led to believe they are entitled, cantious persons to whom such re-presentations are made to be satisfied as to the identiy and character of their correspondents.

Gen. Paez said he had come to bid farewell to this nation, through its President; that he considered the United States his second home, and expressed the hope that the sympathies bestowed upon him in his exile would be extended to Venezuela. The high respect and gratitude he felt for the United States would daily increase at his fireside, and when justice or the good name of the United States are quired it, his friendship would be abundantly manifested as a tribute which he owed to this people, whose illustrious chief now received his adice.

which he owed to this people, whose illustrious chief now received his adice.

The President, in reply, said he was happy to see the man who had wen so great a name in the Columbian War of Independence, and who had made so many sacrifices for his country. General Paez being known as the defender of Constitutional liberty, it was gratifying to the President that he had received the nation's sympathy. With all his heart he wished him triumphant success on his return, and that Venezuela may consolidate her liberties under such an eminent leader. Entertaining the warmest feeling for the prosperity of Venezuela, he desired that the two countries would maintain the most friendly relations. If any difficulty should arise between them, he entertained no doubt it

The interview, as Gen. Paez subsequently remarked, was of a highly gratifying character.

The Indian War.

The Indian War.

Times Office, Harrford, Friday, Oct. 29, 1858.
We have a letter from Licut. Tyler of the United States Oregon army, dated at Cour d'Alone Mission, Washington Territory, Sopt. 15, with fifteen days' later news than any other account from there. The Spokane and Pelouse Indians had been defeated after two days' fighting. The Spokane chief was held by the United States forces, and 900 horses had been taken from the Pelouse tribe. All of the plunder which the Indians took from Col. Sieptoe's pistel was found upon an Indian that was shot down in his saddle. The army did not lose a man. The Indians were begging for peace, and complying with all of the demands of the United States officers. Licut. Tyler considers the war in that quarter as ended. His letter was expressed to Fort Taylor on the Snake River, near Walla Walla, by Indian runners; it was directed to his father, in this city, and is probably the only letter that came through by the last California steamer from the seat of the Orego war. that came through by the last California steamer from the seat of the Oregon war.

The Meeker Will Case.

NEWARK, Friday, Oct. 29, 1858.

The Meeker will case, which has occupied the attention of the Supreme Court Circuit, and excited the interest of our citizens during the whole of the present term of the above Court, is drawing to a close. T. T. Frelinghuysen, esq., made the concluding speech on the part of the plaintiffs to-day, having taken six hours in its delivery. The other counsel, Courtlandt Parker, esq., the Hon. A. C. M. Pennington and Gov. Pennington, each spoke from six to eight hours. The charge of Judge Haines to the Jury will be delivered to-morrow. Property to the value of $10,000 is involved in the suit. A verdict for the plaintiffs can hardly be regarded otherwise than as a conviction in the minds of Jurors that the instrument purporting to the the last will of Jonathan M. Meeker, under which J. K. Boylan, the principal deposes has possession of J. K. Boylan, the principal deposee has possession of the property, is a forgery, and the subscribing wit-nesses have sworn falsely. The Jury is composed of

Mr. Seward spots with an allusion to the nomination for day. He began with an allusion to the nomination for member of Congress in the Oneida District, and passed a high cologium on Mr. Coakling, urging his election Passing from this subject, he said the election was close at hard. It was too late for argument. He would speak first of the stage at which the contest for Freedom in the United States and arrived. That stage was the affective organization of the Republican party, now complete throughout all the Free States, and soon to be extended throughout the Slave States. He showed how the party was organized in Maine, under the & rection of Hamin and Fessenden; in Massachusetts under the guidance of Wilson and Adams; in New York, under the lead of Horace Greeley and Preston King; in Pennsylvania, under the lead of Camera and Warle: in New-Hampshire, under the conduct of Hale and Clark, and in Vermont under the management of Poete and Collamer. But, he said, as yet the Republicans labored under the disadvantage of having a portion equal to twenty of their members of Congress be by the three-fifth representation of the slaves in the slave States. He then proceeded to speak secondly of the objects first to be obtained. The admission of Kansas, the overthrow of the Dred Scott de and the restoration of freedom in the Terms ries, were distant and ultimate objects. Pint of all and parameunt to all was the attainment of the play in the contest. That fair play was all that remained for the administration of James Buchasas All the other interests of freedom had been betrayed and surrendered before. But Mr. Buchanan had promised in his inaugural fair play, and ever this pledge had been broken. A Republican Congress was necessary to give a voice in favor of freedem when expressed in their elections In the third place, Mr. Seward said, the way of the battle had entirely changed. Heretofore the battle had been with the slaveholders of the United States honestly contending for rights which they deemed on sential to to their interests, and for the extension of which they believed pract cable. But they had now given over the centest as hopeless, In the course of the contest, however, they had enlisted the Democrats of the North as retainers and these latter would not give up the contest for fear of confiscation and punishment. It was they, and not the slaveholders that now continued the contest. On war henceforth was with them. They are easily found in the Post-Offices and Custom Houses, in in missions and in territorial employments. They are in significant in numbers, and will be speedily arrested and the question is how to dispose of them humanic to prevent their doing further mischief. He suggested that they be sent to Brazil, or to Russia, or to Turkey, where the agitation of Stavery was pending under alarming circumstances, and where they might employ their skill in saving the union in these empires. No one need doubt that they would accept such banishment, for they are compliant in disposition, and easily somemodate themselves, to circumstances. They are the Free Soilers of 1848, who threw the Hards, sincere believers in Slavery, out of publicesployment, and took their places under a profound conviction that it was necessary to do so in order to save the cause of Freedom. They now surrender the cause of Freedom and become the retainers of Slavery under the conviction that this last sacrifice was necessary to save at once their places and the Federal Union. Mr. Seward concluded his speech which was about an hour in length, with assurances that the election would result in the complete route of the Democratio retainers of Slavery in the State of New-York and throughout the Free States.
